

PHOENIX

'66

The yearbook staff presents the seventh edition of the PHOENIX to the John Battle student body and faculty.

John S. Battle High School -- Home of the Trojans.

FOREWORD

We, the student body of John S. Battle High School, are attaining something wonderful and intangible that few high schools as young as ours has ever experienced. We call this intangible the Battle Spirit. This spirit like all other priceless things is hard to define. It isn't a quality that we may see or touch, but something we can only feel and appreciate. We feel it the moment we enter the school in the morning and miss it when we leave in the afternoon.

The Battle Spirit may falter just a little at eight in the morning, during exams, or on hot stuffy days when the water fountains won't work and the sewer line breaks.

But, have we ever stopped to think at these times what we will be missing when we leave Battle? The excitement of that game with Abingdon . . . Mr. Raines and his efforts to make ours the best school yet . . . that special someone who has your eye . . . those bull sessions in homeroom . . . Mr. Shook's personality . . . The Battle Cry . . . That last exam.

Yes, the Battle Spirit is a wonderful thing and we, The Yearbook Staff, have tried to capture some of it in the following pages.

DEDICATION

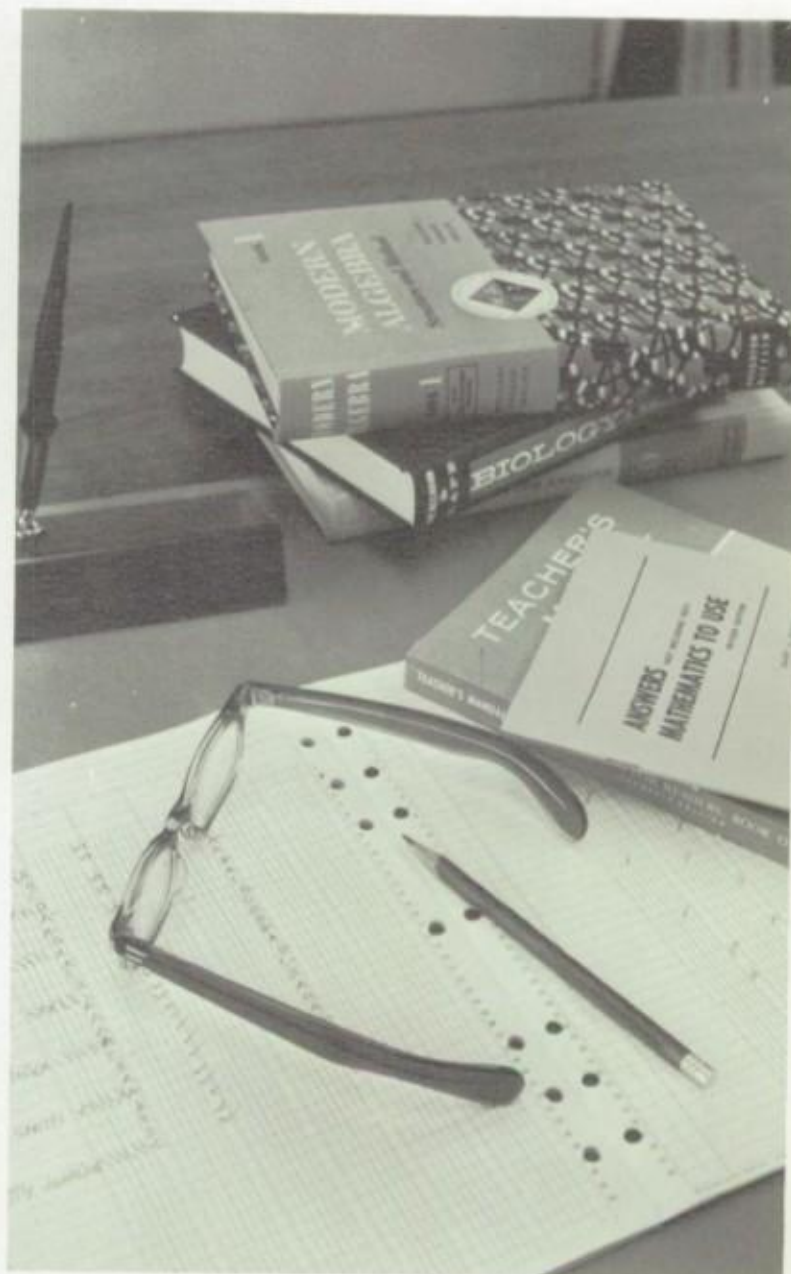

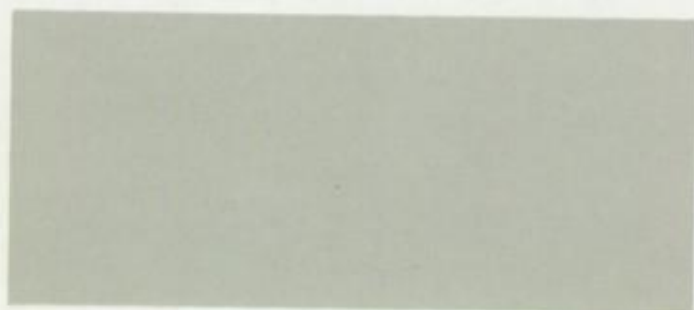

Worth makes the man -- Alexander Pope

Every person who has studied under Mr. Clyde Pursley, or observed his teaching has undoubtedly admired his ability to communicate with his students. He is gifted with the ability to become pals with his students and still have their complete trust and respect.

This tribute to his abilities is indicative of his entire character. In dealing with the student body, he is always more in the background, but forever ready to lend a helping hand to those who need him.

It is with sincere gratitude and honest affection that we humbly dedicate the 1966 Phoenix to . . . Mr. Clyde Pursley.

JANET YOUNG --

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems
asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of
farewell,
When I embark:
For though from out our bourne of
Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

This year the Western Regional Wrestling Tournament was held at John Battle. Teams such as Andrew Lewis, Blacksburg, Northside, Pulaski, Marion, Tazewell, Abingdon, John Battle, and others participated. Hard work and long hours of practice paid off for four Trojan Grapplers, as they placed in their respective weight classes, and not only won a place in the Regionals, but also a chance to wrestle at the STATE TOURNAMENT held at Arlington, Virginia. Many congratulations go to you, the Trojan wrestlers, for your display of skill and sportsmanship, and to you Coach Otey, for your fine display of coaching.

A QUICK GLANCE . . .

Only two more minutes to get to class, but we always have time to show our teeth.

We're taking in new members to the cafeteria club, anybody interested?

That bus ride definately affects one's outlook on life.

How do you expect me to get any sleep with all this noise?

Cookies? Cupcakes? Candy? Please buy some.

AT STUDENTS AND FACULTY

Just can't seem to break the habit!

Students are jerking the night away at one of our very rare dances!

Who says Playboys never have to sleep?

Didn't anyone ever teach Mr. Shook how to park that little VW of his?

ALL IN A DAY'S TIME . . .

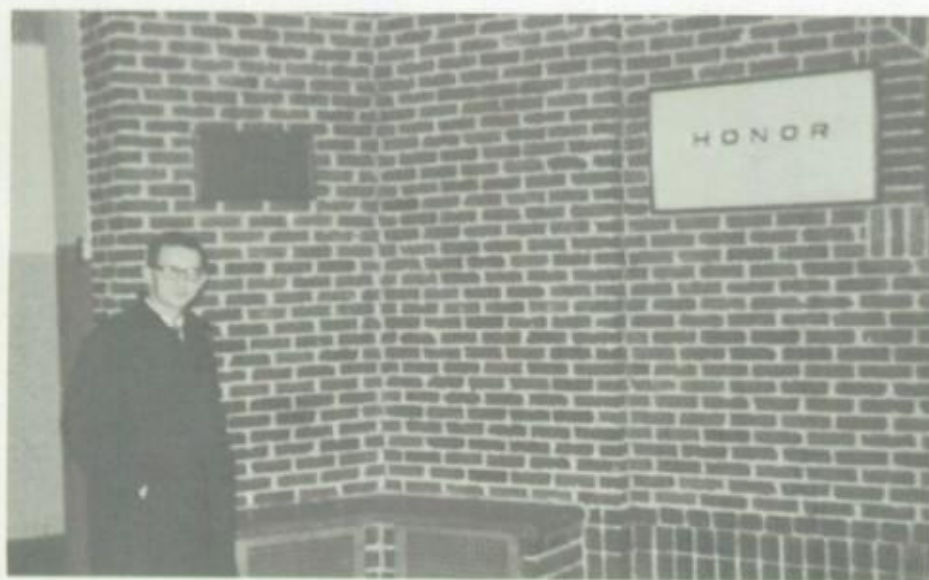

Well, I guess.

I sure hope today is better than yesterday was.

Caught in the act!

Yes, Mr. Counts we think you're honorable.

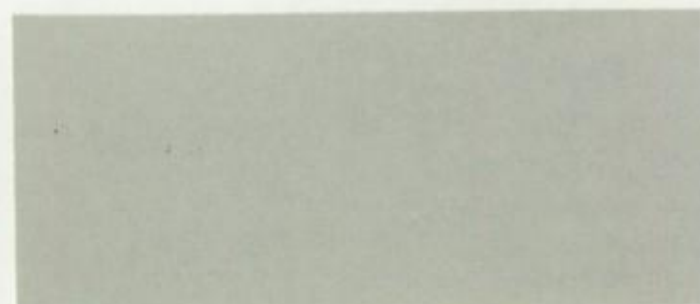

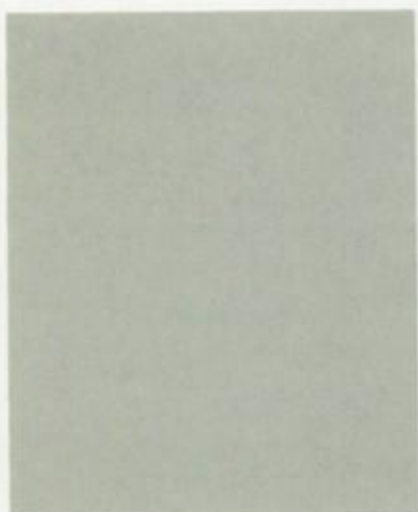

I had 20% fewer teeth!

These History teachers always have plenty of things to type.
